The family and friends of the missing man are at a loss to conjecture why he should have left home under such circumstances. His domestic relations were most happy, and his business affairs were in good condition. THE NEW COUNTY COURT-HOUSE.

Two Sites Offered-The Board Has Reached No Definite Conclusion. The proposed erection of a new county

ourt-house is still the all-absorbing topic from what can be gathered among the loiterers on the court green it would appear that the consensus of opinion is in favor of the erection of a new building. Dr. R. A. Patterson, who is associated with Major James H. Dooley in objecting to the expenditure of funds for a new building, has signified his willingness to present five acres of his land in Tuckahoe to the supervisors on which to erect a court-house, and Magistrate G. C. Vincent has offered a similar tract of land near Seven Pines.

It transpired yesterday that the Board of Supervisors did not decide positively to erect a new building, but they examined all the plans submitted to them, and accepted that of Mr. Carl Ruehrmund to be used in event a new building is erected. loiterers on the court green it would

"Dear Sir,—Mr. Mac. Jones gave his entertainment, 'Chalk Talk, here last night to a highly appreciative audience. His dexterity with the 'chalk' was only equalied by the glibness of his 'talk, and in (surely it is not too much to say) his own inimitable way he kept his audience in a roar for about two hours. His character sketches were extremely well-done, clear-cut, and true to life. Especially good was his Italian fruit-yender's racy description of a base-ball game, which alone would stamp a man a true comedian. If you can send us another entertainer as good as Mr. Mac. Jones we should be glad to hear from you.

"I am over 60 years of age, ' continued Mrs. Currey, in a very modest but enthusiastic manner, "and aside from rheumatic troubles I have always enjoyed very good health, but of late I have suffered from indigestion. Of course, I had heard of the Tapules, and finally on-day, at the request of my daughter, with whom I am living, I sent up town for a box, and was benefited immediately. Now I am very seldom without them, and usually take a Tabule just after eating." She also asserts that "the Tabules are excellent for any irregularities of the bowels or derangement of the digestive organs, and that no dyspeptic should be
